

Dreaming of a Beach Wedding?

Does your dream include calm breezes, blue skies, emerald-green waters and sand so soft and white, it looks like sugar? If a beautiful beach wedding is what you want but you're not quite sure how to pull it all off...relax, take a breath and turn to the professionals who can make it all happen.

Sisters, April Moran of Emerald Coast Beach Weddings.com and Wendy Adams of Panama City Beach Weddings.net can help turn your beach wedding dream into an affordable reality. By putting your trust in them and allowing their expertise and professional experience to guide you, your special day on the beach is sure to be one that you remember with immense happiness and without many of the bumps and hurdles that you might face by trying to do it all yourself.

Wendy and April have the knowledge, experience and strong local vendor relationships required to make your destination beach wedding dream a reality! Panama City Beach Weddings.net and Emerald Coast Beach Weddings.com have been in business since 2002 and have helped hundreds of brides plan the perfect beach wedding. Their strong organizational skills and desire for perfection have proven valuable assets when a bride needs them the most. These qualities are accentuated by an engaging sense of humor and southern charm that immediately put nervous bridal couples at ease. These girls are smart, talented and funny! It's hard to find that combination, but very pleasing when you do.

Their 5 distinctive beach wedding packages take wedding planning to a higher level. Sophisticated couples love the "Coastal Elegance" look; a signature style evident in every aspect of Panama City Beach Weddings.net and Emerald Coast Beach Weddings.com. These two sisters "brainstorm", frequently bouncing ideas off of each other, working together to keep their services fresh and current, and yet timelessly classic all at the same time. If something becomes outdated or doesn't seem "just right", they have the originality and creativity to change it. They put their heart and soul into creating a wedding day that you, your family and friends will always remember. From the pre-planning, to setup of your wedding decorations, to the direction of your ceremony, they are involved in every aspect of your beach wedding. Wendy described their dedication best when she stated, "Our ultimate goal is to meet your expectations and then to surpass them. From the moment you select your package until you wave goodbye to us as the sun sets on your special day, April and I are there, offering our guidance, assistance and dedication". She goes on by saying, "It's hard work, but so incredibly worth it when you see the happy smiles on the bride and groom's face as they look back one last time before they leave the beach."

April adds, "I have to admit, I was one of those life-long residents who took our beautiful beaches for granted: now what I find so rewarding is the fact that we really have the opportunity to see our beaches through the eyes of our clients and to share their joy in having a beach wedding. I'm just as excited at seeing a gorgeous sunset on their wedding day as they are! It's their appreciation for the beauty of our beaches and our chance to share it with couples that makes this all so wonderful". In saying this I am convinced that April and Wendy, like so many of their clients, truly believe that there is nowhere else in the world like the Emerald Coast.

Wendy and April make this promise to you-- your wedding day will be handled with professionalism, honesty, and a sincere wish for your beach wedding dream to come true. With Panama City Beach Weddings.net and Emerald Coast Beach Weddings.com on your side, the day you've been dreaming of since you were a little girl will be all you've ever hoped for and more!

As the girls say, "go ahead- Make a Splash!...Have a Beach Wedding!"
